Personal Profile

A passionate and articulate Communication and Public Relations graduate from the University of Kabianga. My academic journey, combined with practical experience at the Kenya National Commission on Human Rights (KNCHR), has equipped me with a strong foundation in strategic communication, media relations, and advocacy.

I excel in creating engaging content for diverse audiences, managing social media platforms, and coordinating successful public relations initiatives. My attachment at KNCHR honed my skills in research, event planning, and stakeholder engagement, while deepening my commitment to promoting human rights and social justice.

I am a proactive team player with excellent interpersonal and problem-solving abilities, always eager to learn and adapt in fast-paced environments. With a keen eye for detail and a creative approach to communication challenges, I am ready to contribute fresh ideas and professionalism to any organization.
