Justus Marube Orwoba is a security guard working with G4S Eldoret. The position he has been holding has entailed duties and responsibilities such as providing security services to apartments and business premises: Carrying out security surveillance at designated places, checking conditions of installed security systems at designated places, frisking guests and customers entering business premises and apartments, registering and recording cars and persons entering appointed places, take action to correct any issues, as needed, briefing guests and customers entering appointed places on security protocols, attending security drills and seminars, arresting those posing security threats, checking luggage for weapons and unauthorized gadgets and equipment, keeping luggage safe for customers, writing and providing weekly security reports to his seniors. He took a complete course on security, protocols, security fitness and defense and combat drills and has gained experience from 2019 to the date of writing this recommendation letter and has applied the skills he has earned with such diligence.

He is swift, efficient, hardworking, dedicated and passionate at his work and has managed to make G4S Eldoret proud.

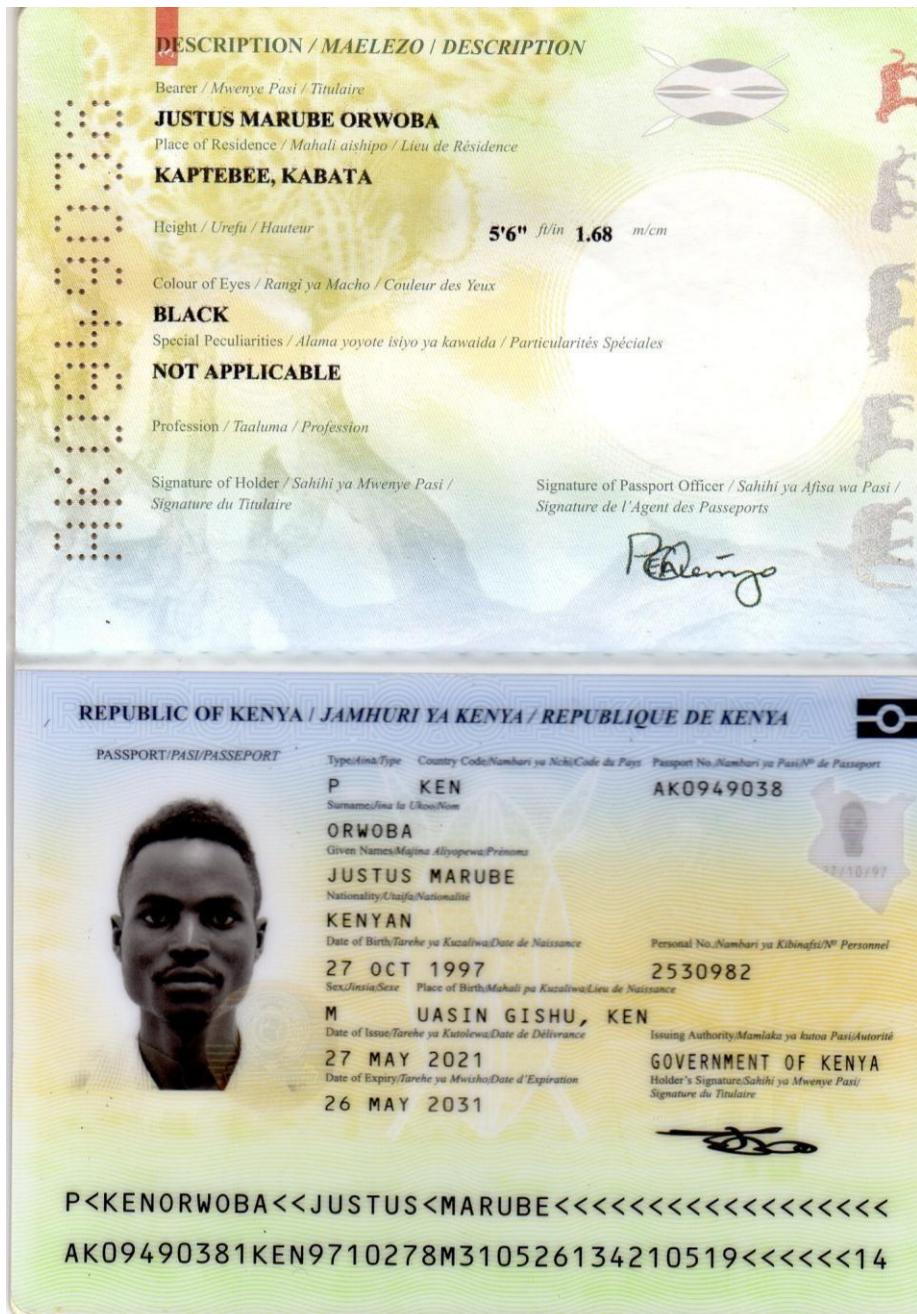

I would recommend Justus Marube Orwoba for any role regarding security and in any organization.

Thank you
